HAPPY EASTER

As we have journeyed to New Life in Christ this Lent, and as we continue moving forward as companions of the Risen Lord, may the Lord bless us with Grace and Peace. We wish you a Blessed Easter Day and a Joyous Easter Season.

Fr. Leo, Fr. Zeb, Deacon Mike & Staff

WELCOME

We wish to warmly welcome those of you who have come from near and far to celebrate the great festival of the Lord's resurrection this Easter Day. We have endeavored not only to make you feel welcome, but more importantly, to celebrate with song, prayer, environment and especially faith and love, the great miracle of the Lord Jesus' conquering sin and death. If you are from nearby and have enjoyed our celebrations, feel free to pick up a registration form at the entrance of the Church. One of the ushers can help you find one. We celebrate the Lord's presence and power every weekend of the year. We would be pleased to have you join us.

Our best wishes and welcome to our newest members: Alison Carbee, John Downs, Rochelle Edmark, Emma Giesing, and Melissa Marcinkewitz who came into Full Communion in the Catholic Church through the RCIA process at the Easter Vigil and to Molly Edmark who received First Eucharist.

*Dear Lord,
our brothers and sisters have begun their lives anew,
baptized and anointed as members of your Church.
Grant that the grace they have obtained through the Easter sacraments we have celebrated will strengthen them in their journey to you.
May our joy be everlasting at their homecoming!*

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

How do you react to those who think that the resurrection of Christ is "nonsense"?

BULLETIN CONNECTION

Peter's speech about the risen Lord in today's first reading takes place in the home of Cornelius, who had called together his relatives and close friends to hear the message Peter spoke. On this Easter Day the initiative of Cornelius can serve as an example for us. We hear the message that Christ is raised from the dead. We believe that through baptism in him we share in eternal life. What good news about the risen Lord are we ready to share with our relatives and friends? Cornelius did not hesitate to invite others to know more about Christ.

Divine Mercy Sunday will be celebrated in our parish Sunday, April 11, with recitation of the Divine Mercy chaplet and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at Our Lady of Grace Chapel, 3:00 PM.

Symbols of Baptism

Three catechumens are being baptized at the Easter Vigil. The symbols of the baptismal rite put into focus the primary gift of the Sacrament – a share in divine life that is, for us, a new identity:

Water – plunged into baptismal waters, we are plunged into Christ's death; rising, we share in divine life. Water brings both death (to our old selves) and a rebirth of life (new life in God).

Chrism – anointed with chrism, we share in the three-fold office of Christ – priest, prophet and ruler. Our being anointed with chrism is a consecration; conforming our lives to Christ.

Lighted Candle – enlightened by Christ, we are also to be the light of Christ, dispelling sin and darkness in the world. We ourselves are manifestations that in Christ the light of salvation has come into the world!

SPRING is officially here. Regardless if that famous groundhog saw his shadow and even if you have long forgotten your New Year's resolutions, spring is a time of renewal. Here is a list of items to consider for your family's spring cleaning to-do list:

- o Does your family really miss those things you gave up for Lent? Consider making those sacrifices permanent.
- o As the days get longer and warmer, get your family outside; together. Take a walk. Go for a bike ride. Pack a picnic.
- o Carrying a grudge? Resentment? Anger? Plant and cultivate forgiveness and reconciliation in your family this spring.
- o What are your family goals? Are you each working toward them? Make sure you're helping one another be the kind of person and family you want to be.
- o Talk about your family's unique gifts, and volunteer those special talents to your faith community.
